NO. 5.

Railroad Indicted.

We see where the L. & N. railroad has been indicted at Winchester in two cases for obstructing the public highways in Clark county, one of them in Winchester. We are glad to see this road made to observe the law somewhere sometimes or pay the penalty for not so doing. This road seems to have a free right in Powell. Not many months ago this road blocked a street crossing in this city for an hour and a half or more, and there was intercepted a well-known lady who was sick and was bringing a sick child to the doctor for treatment. The sun was shining hot and the child was nearly overcome with heat. There was no prosecution for this offense. And strange, further to say, the road had not even the sign of "Railroad crossing" as the law provides at this place. At Bowen last fall, we have been informed, a train or some cars at least, remained across the road ten hours or more, and nothing has been said or done about that. Another violation of law on the wholesale scale was in the complete obliteration last fall of signs "Railroad crossing" at Rosslyn, Powell's Valley, and the Mastin crossing, and we learn every other crossing in the county. The prosecuting official's notice was called to some of these violations at the last term of court, but no indictments were made for these violations.

The Times has nothing against the L. & N. railroad except what we have against every other violator of the laws of our State. We believe "all men are equal", and further believe that all corporations should be equal with all men in observing the law. Allowing railroads to violate the laws of our State at will is what stimulates a distaste against the roads.

Good Place After All.

We sometimes think Clay City is a very poor newspaper town, but when we observe some of our most worthy exchanges we change our mind. We know of four or five local papers published in good towns that carry no local merchants advertising at all while others have but one or two. In every instance, however, the banks of these towns patronize the home papers advertising columns. The Times is far better off than this. We do have all the time no less than five merchants in the county represented in our advertising columns, besides our bank and other business. Come to think about it, guess Clay City is a pretty good newspaper town after all. At least as compared with some other towns the same size or larger.

See change in Hardwick & Company's advertisement. This is one of the leading mercantile firms of the county, and they may be depended upon to supply their trade with the best of everything and, too, at the lowest price.

Dr. Martin reports the birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Martin Tuesday the 27th.

Seeing the Error of His Way.

Last fall when the amendment to change to Constitution so as to classify property for taxation was before the voters, the Times warned them against the amendment. We believed then the change was to give an even greater opportunity for corporation tax dodgers to get in their cheat and swindles. A bill was prepared to be passed by the Legislature, thinking that the amendment which passed was good, but which has since been declared illegal by the Court of Appeals on account of the length of time the amendments were advertised.

Secretary of Agriculture Newman, who was last fall for the amendment, now sees like the Times saw then and still sees. To the Legislative Committee on Revenue and Taxation last week Mr. Newman said that in his opinion, and that of many farmers of the State, based upon what they had read in the newspapers, the bill looking to a change of Kentucky's tax system, as at present drawn, will afford no relief to the farmers as a class. He claims the farmers are paying an excessive share of taxes under the present system. He declared that no provision whatever, so far as he could learn, had been made whereby owners of intangible property would be made to bear their just proportion of the tax burden. He said that until some system had been devised whereby hidden wealth would be brought to light and taxed at a fair cash value the owners of tangible property, like the farmers of Kentucky, would continue to "be the goats".

Mr. Newman said the farmers know that all the jewelry in Jefferson county had been valued at $164,000 for taxation purposes in the returns of the Assessor, but that any afternoon one could visit the Seelbach rathskeller and see diamonds to that value displayed upon persons seated about tables.

"The farmers know the merchant in Louisville and elsewhere throughout the State insures his stock of goods for $10,000 for insurance, and places a valuation of $2,000 on it for taxation purposes," Mr. Newman said.

Twenty Cases at Winchester.

The Winchester papers admit that there are twenty cases of small-pox in the city and the county. A pest house has been built to care for the patients. Clay City people going to this city had better look a little out or they will necessitate the building of a pest house in Powell county.

Better than Usual.

Our roads are better than usual in the winter, owing to the small amount of rainfall. There has not been a tide of any importance this winter, and the Broadhead-Garrett saw mill has not yet got to start up.

To Cut Production of Liquor.

Many of the big distilleries of the State have announced that they will run only half time this year. They say there is an over-production of liquor now in the warehouses, and that the high prices of corn appears to them an inopportune time to load up any further.

Could it be possible that this decision of theirs is in any way responsible for the decline of corn? One thing is sure, if the corn is not used up in making whiskey, it must be sold for feeding purposes. In this way it looks very reasonable that the chill in the whiskey business is at least partially responsible for the decline in corn.

Limiting the output of the big distilleries of the country looks peculiar too at this juncture. It being the new era epoch, when counties and states are so fast going dry. Still the wets tell us the consumption of whiskey increases as the temperance wave spreads. In the face of all the circumstances, we are inclined to believe that, to a small degree at least, "Prohibition does Prohibit," the gifted advocates of temperance (?) to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Death of Massengill Martin.

Monday morning, the 26th, Massengill Martin, an old and valued citizen, living near Nada, died suddenly in his eighty-fourth year. He had started to build a fire in an old-fashioned fire-place, and had brought in a back-log and put it on and then started to bring in some small wood. When he reached the door he fell backward in the floor and died almost instantly.

Uncle Martin was the son of a pioneer of Powell county, and had a host of descendants throughout the country, and all were his friends who knew him.

He was a soldier of the Civil War, serving in Company I, 5th Ky. Volunteers, C. S. A., and many of his old Confederate comrades are left to mourn his leaving and to recount his valor on the bloody fields of those fearful days.

He was laid to rest at the old graveyard at Chopped Chestnut, where many of his people lie, waiting, like him, the Resurrection.

We tender to his folks and friends our sincere sympathy, and point to his quiet life as an example worthy of the following.

Look Out for Seed Swindles.

This is the season of the year when you will read descriptions of wonderful new plants just found. The descriptions are always supplied by unreliable seed concerns striving to cudgel your money without giving value received. Better let the other fellow try the experiment before you spend too much. We speak as one having experience. We have spent many of our hard-earned dollars trying new seeds and plants, and in nearly every instance have found the plants no good.

A nice correspondence from Bowen was received too late for publication this week but will appear in next week's issue.

Gives Timely Warning.

Our correspondent at Stanton has a rigorous and scathing article this week on the dance. This is one subject that the editor is not well versed upon, as we never gave the subject any special study, and never attended a dance in our life, therefore we have never seen a set danced. Our scribe has it pictured in very bad light. We have heard other ministers speak of it in similar manner. We know of a number of nice people, respectable people, who do attend well-regulated balls and feel that they do themselves no harm. We know, however, from all of what we have heard of some dances it must be as Bro. Derthick pictures it. It is well enough that Powell county people take warning at Bro. Derthick's article and guard against a further degradation of our boys and girls through the indulgence of the dance.

Like the Stanton minister, the editor believes the dance is better left off, even though we may now have a number of harmless dances during the season, we see and know that the tendencies are not pure, and later some serious evils may result. Some advocates of the dance claim that there are a number of plays in our young folks' parties that are worse than the prevalent dance. To this we agree, but we do not endorse these plays any more than we do the dance. To avoid every appearance of evil it is well that the rude plays and the dance be left off altogether. Still the editor has no censure for those who attend and give well conducted dances. As regarded by many of our good people, it is merely an unchristian source of amusement and not a serious breach of morals. Those who are looking at it in this light however, should study well Bro. Derthick's warning, and take heed that they do not lend encouragement to its impending evils.

Hits the Nail on the Head

The Estill Tribune a modern good roads booster, in speaking of the benefits of good roads and other things, sensibly concludes by saying:

"This town and county will never progress very much farther until the public roads are improved, and very greatly improved."

Talk about car shops, railroad yards, factories, and the like, they are all good in a way, but nothing will insure the real, permanent prosperity of this county until we have good roads."—Estill Tribune.

A sweeping complaint of the freight rates on coal maintained by the L. & N. and other carriers, is made in a petition filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington Tuesday by the Bush Creek Mining and Manufacturing Company and others, of Knox county.

Mrs. Ellen McKinney is visiting relatives and friends at Irvine this week.

Gray's Branch.

J. F. Bailey, our skilled blacksmith, visited his home folks at Campton Saturday and Sunday.

Geo. P. Burke, of the Rosslyn mills, spent a few pleasant hours in our little village one day this week.

The enterprising general manager of affairs here, Mr. F. S. Brown, was a visitor to Mariba Saturday night.

Jerry Gilbert, of Lee county, has finished his logging job and gone home to clear up a lot of new ground this Spring.

Ans. Noland, one of our best workmen, is quite ill at this writing. Dr. Knox, of Nada, saying it may develop into a serious case of pneumonia.

Sheriff Derickson was circulating in our parts one day this week, looking for what he might find and finding some of what he was looking for.

Ballinger Ledford, who lives about Campton, got sick the first of the week and went home to doctor up. They miss him in the log woods, where he is a fine hand.

David Landsaw, one of our hustling log hauling contractors, took in Court day at Mt. Sterling last Monday. He reports stock still high on the markets over there.

Hon. H. G. Garrett, of Winchester, was a visitor to our camps one night this week. He was pleased with the way the logging interests of the Broadhead-Garrett Co., were being handled here.

The Broadhead-Garrett Co., are filling the north fork of Red river plumb full of all kinds of logs. The booms at Clay City may look out when the right kind of a tide gets a move on things up this way.

Tom McCoy, late of Roger's Chapel, now of Valley Creek, Tennessee, was over to see us Monday, looking well and happy. He is with Mr. C. C. Fletcher and others in a large hickory wood plant somewhere about Jellico, where they hope to annex some of Uncle Sam's crisp promises to pay. "Unohoo."

The President's message which was delivered to Congress personally by the President, the same as all of his previous messages, has made a remarkable impression on the entire country. Mr. Wilson has the most extraordinary endowment of common sense of any President within the last fifty years. His first message dealt with the tariff, his second message relating to legislation urged Congress to pass an elastic currency bill. The former became a law on October 3rd, and the latter on December 23rd. These two great measures having been written in our Statute book, he now urges Congress to take up the trust question. The main provisions which he desires to be enacted into laws are as follows:

1. Prohibiting interlocking directorates of great corporations especially prohibiting one who is a director in a great manufacturing concern from serving on a board of directors of any transportation company that moves the manufactured products thereof.
2. Prohibiting railroads from issuing stocks and bonds for larger amounts than the value of the road. This measure will keep "water" out of railroad stocks in the future.
3. A provision for punishing the guilty individual instead of the business where the law is violated.
4. A provision forbidding one corporation from owning another.

When laws remedying the above evils have been made effective the greater part of the wrong doings of the trusts and big business will be cured. Heretofore the Government has been prosecuting business concerns more for the purpose of political effect than for accomplishing any real benefit to the people. President Wilson's message is a wholesome inspiration to all legitimate industries and enterprises to get busy and make things hum as they have nothing to fear from the Government as long as they behave themselves properly. In other words the policy of the President is to make the Government a corrective power, to correct the abuses of big business rather than to antagonize it as heretofore. He says that antagonism between business and Government is over and our object is not to unsettle business but to build it up. The New York Times which is one of the able and patriotic independent papers of the country, comments on the message as a whole as follows:

"These words of prudence, of moderation and of wisdom come with curative power of healing balm. It was hopeful that they be spoken. They are time, they are in the very nick of time, for they have been made possible by very recent events in our industrial history. The masters of business on the great scale have begun to yield their preferences and purpose perhaps their judgment also, in honorable surrender. Until Mr. Wilson spoke no President since the beginning of the first anti trust suit has been able to say that.

In addition to legislation suggested in the above named message, it is quite certain that Congress will shortly pass a law restricting immigration from foreign countries. Heretofore, immigration has frequently reached and slightly passed the million mark per year, but the year of 1913 broke all records and something like one million and six hundred thousand (1,600,000) were received into this country. Twenty and thirty years ago the immigration from abroad was of a very desirable quality but the kind that is now coming in is largely from the South of Europe and instead of being an asset to the country they become burdens. They are unwilling as a rule to work on our great farms in the south and west, and hundreds of thousands of them hang around the large cities, lured by the bright lights and being out of employment most of the time, they become criminals, such as the "black hand society" and the "New York gunmen", or else they become paupers and thus a charge on the public. The bill now before Congress provides among other things a literacy test which will keep two-thirds of them out of this country. Such a law passed Congress twenty years ago and the last thing that President Cleveland did was to veto it, which of itself is pretty good evidence that it was a meritorious law and the last thing that President Taft did was to veto almost the same identical bill which is quite conclusive proof that the bill was a patriotic one. Mr. Wilson is the greatest statesman who ever entered the White House and he is quite the opposite of Taft and Cleveland, and it is well understood that he will sign the bill when it is presented for his signature. He has been outspoken on the importance of this matter and has frequently said that this country should not be a dumping ground for the criminals, mischief makers and paupers of Europe.

We noticed an announcement by the express companies in a Lexington paper recently in which we see a sweeping reduction in rates between that city and other large cities. In most cases the rates are cut in two. "What has caused that?" did you say? The parcels post, of course. Competition. Had the express companies given us reasonable rates two years ago, there would have been no need for the parcels post. Give us competition and let us keep up competition and the rates will regulate themselves. What is keeping things up so high today in most cases is nothing but monopolization. Shortage of an article only justifies an increase of prices. The shortage has caused the advance in farm products, and this is legitimate, but this is not the case with most manufactured products, the only trouble being a combination for greed and gain.

For years the citizens of Louisville and the city have been at the mercy of the Bell telephone monopoly, paying all the while extortion rates. The city held out and have now got the company going. The company offers to pay subscribers of the city back $137,000.00 as a compromise. Louisville is an aggressive city and usually gets what it wants. This city is now in a tussle with the unscrupulous L. & N. railroad over switching privileges. The city will win out in the end, we are sure, because the city is right, though, however, we do not say that right always prevails, but it will eventually prevail if people in the right will contend against the mighty to the last ditch.

Mr. Hammonds and his wife will move to our town in a few days where Mr. Hammonds will accept a position as bookkeeper for the Hardwick Company. They will occupy the home where Wm. Hardwick lives and they will move to Mrs. Bettie Hardwick's home. We are glad to welcome Mr. Hammonds and wife to our town.

Mr. Joe, Rannals and wife, from Missouri, are visiting old friends and relatives in our midst. This is the first visit they have made here since they left Kentucky 36 years ago. Many have been reading the interesting accounts in the Winchester papers by Mr. Rannals of the great changes that have taken place in that time. And time has indeed wrought many changes, some for the better and some for the worse.

Nearly everyone knows where the writer stands on the dancing question and have heard him express himself on it, so he need not be afraid to make a few more remarks. We have nothing to say to those who are not Christians, but when church members open their doors and attend them, there is something wrong with that person. The dance is associated with the brothel, the saloon, the degrading dance halls of the city, and the lowest element of society where are found the white slave, the fallen women, the gamblers, the young men are watching for their prey and birds of a like feather. All dances are not this way but they inevitably end this way. The godly men and women, those who are workers in God's kingdom, who are looked up to as strong leaders in the church, who are men and women of faith and prayer and of power, who are letting their light shine in all its beauty and holiness, and living the Christ-like life, will never be found on a dancing floor. Some may go there not realizing the harm, but the dance will soon taint our character and destroy your noblest instincts, and the outsider says, "If you are a Christian, then I don't want nothing to do with the church." The dance is the devil's institution and all his emissaries are to be found there, and Christ has nothing to do with it. You cannot conceive of Him going to a dance and if He were here on earth today and went to them as they are carried on in this age of the world, the world would turn its back on Him. We would have nothing to do with Him. If even the preacher attended the dance you would have no faith in him, and you who call yourselves Christians, would not go to hear him, much less the outsiders. And yet when you think of it, the preacher has as much right to go as any church member. There was a time when the dance was all right, but that time passed long years ago. It has now become a demoralizing institution where the tango, grizzly bear, bunny hug and all other such disgraceful scenes are seen. The dancing floor is the open door to hell. Out of every one hundred girls in a brothel today, eighty of them are there because of the dance. More girls are led to a life of shame and ruin because of the dance than from any other cause. This is the statement of workers among fallen women from investigation. The terrible evils coming from the dance are something appalling. The religious world, the cities and municipalities are discussing this great question and trying to solve the problem of how to mitigate the evils arising from them. Many of you want your eyes opened as to the terrible consequences of the dance, read the exhaustive report of the Rockefeller investigating committee on prostitution of New York City. It is almost too horrible to read. If everybody read that report they would think differently of the dance. The writer has been requested by several to give the names of those who attended a recent dance. For shame to the cause of Christ he will not do it. We who are the Christian men and women have no right to go where we cannot take Him with us. For the sake of our example we have no right to attend these places. The Bible says that, "If the eating of meat causes my brother to offend then I will eat no more meat." Then in like manner it means, "If the dance causes the ruin of thousands upon thousands of girls, then I will take my stand against the dance. There is not a Christian man or woman in Powell county but knows that it is wrong to attend them, but knows that Christ would never be seen on a dancing floor to dance, and knows that He does not want any of His followers to attend them. Many have attended these dances not realizing the harm in them, but, brother, sister, beware lest you lose your crown of eternal glory, and that you place a stumbling block before those who are watching just how you live, how you act and what you do as a Christian. You are judged by what you do and not by what you say. God is keeping a record of your life, and you will be judged by that record in the day of judgment. If you lose Heaven it will be your own fault, for you made your choice. You cannot afford to trifle with your soul, and death comes when you are least prepared sometimes. As your deeds are, and as death finds your life, so shall be your eternity. Three young men in Stanton who have been attending these dances, were asked if they would be for their sister to attend, and everyone of them said, "No, I would not want my sister to go to these dances." Next week the writer will speak of providing legitimate amusements for our young people. We fathers and mothers are largely responsible for these dances, because we have given the young people nothing else to go to.

SPOUT SPRING.

C. Bowman went to Winchester last week, moving there Bill Clem from near Kimbrell.

The little son of Dillard Snowden, who was so very low last week with worms, is much improved.

A number of young people met at the home Mr. and Mrs. Moses McKinney one night last week and enjoyed a nice social.

For Our Women Readers.

The Times has a combination that should appeal to every lady reader. We will send both Today's and McCall's magazine together with two patterns free and the Oldio Farmer weekly and the Times all for $1.25. If you or any one of your family are already a subscriber to the Times, just send us 75 cents in money order or stamps and we will send both magazines and the weekly farm paper one year. You select the patterns from the magazines after you receive them. Send today as this offer will soon be withdrawn. It is made only as a subscription getter for the first of the year.

Livestock Figures.

The annual livestock report of Orange Mold Farmer made public shows a farm wealth in this form of property that broke all records. The increase in value in twelve months was placed at $143,758,000, while the total value of all classes of farm animals reached $5,590,024,000. Of this total horses furnished $2,185,555,000, mules $529,339,000. By way of comparison the total value represented 50 per cent. more than the total money in circulation in this country and was almost equal to all deposits in the 7,400 national banks in existence.

The numbers of meat-producing animals, however, showed a decrease, beef cattle recording a falling off in numbers of 1,762,000 head or 5 per cent.; hogs a decrease of 4,982,000, or 7 per cent. Milch cows showed no material change, while horses increased slightly in number. The decrease in numbers caused a heavy increase in average value per head, milch cows advancing 21 per cent.; other cattle 18 per cent.; hogs 17 per cent. and sheep 8 per cent.

The decrease in hogs was the result of heavy cholera losses in important States, coupled with a shortage of corn, while the decrease in sheep resulted from low priced wool and dissatisfaction with the wool tariff.

On the other hand the decline in the number of beef cattle continued a decline that has been under way for several years and with the increasing population indicated a growing shortage of beef. The only hope of relief held on the report was a calculation that an increase of 30 per cent. in the number of silos indicated a complete utilization of the forage of the corn fields, thereby reducing the cost of producing beef.

A. Rucker, Confederate veteran, has been informed by letter from Capt. W. J. Stone, Pension Commissioner of the State, that he will recommend at the next meeting of the Pension Board, that his claim be allowed.

Straws Flying Stanleyward.

The Advocate the other day took a secret straw ballot on the Senatorship race in the business section of Danville. When the box containing the votes was opened it contained fifty ballots. Of the number thirty were for Stanley, seventeen for Beckham and three for McCreary. The surprising feature was the small number of votes cast for McCreary, as it had been figured that about two-fifths of the votes would be for Stanley, the same for Beckham and about one-fifth for McCreary.

This shows how our candidate for U. S. Senate is going in other places as well as Powell county.

THE OHIO FARMER

FOR the past quarter of a century, there has been one Farm Paper that has stood out from its fellows like a ray of sunshine through a murky sky; by its straightforward and fearless attitude on every big question affecting the public in general and the farmer in particular; by its unchanging policy of accepting for publication, only the advertising of established and reputable concerns; by its unfaltering advocacy of everything that has contributed to the betterment of the farmer, his family and farm. It has emblazoned its name at the very forefront of The American Farm Press—THE OHIO FARMER. From 20 to 48 pages every week. Magazine Section devoted to high-class fiction, travel and science sketches, poetry, articles for boys and girls, etc. REGULAR PRICE, 50 CENTS A YEAR.

TODAY'S MAGAZINE

TODAY'S MAGAZINE is a monthly and contains from 32 to 41 pages, 11 inches wide, 16 inches long. It is a large, complete woman's magazine, full of general information of interest. Every issue contains attractive articles on timely subjects written by the foremost men and women of the day. Its pages are full of the choicest kind of literature relating to history, travel, science, invention, art, drama, education, religion, music, fashions, needlework, hairdressing, home dressmaking, health, hygiene, cooking, short stories and serial stories. It is printed on a fine quality of paper with beautiful, clean-cut illustrations. It is a handsome magazine in every respect. REGULAR PRICE, 50 CENTS A YEAR.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE

McCALL'S MAGAZINE contains from 80 to 124 pages each month. The pages are 8 inches wide and 11 inches long. It is the greatest Woman's Fashion Journal in America. It is a large, artistic, handsomely illustrated woman's magazine. It contains special articles and stories and new ideas in dressmaking, millinery, fancy work, home decorations and household management. It illustrates 50 to 60 fashion designs every month, some in color, besides numerous other attractive features which have made this a favorite magazine in over one million homes. REGULAR PRICE, 50 CENTS A YEAR.

OUR PAPER

Little need be said about our own paper. You are all familiar with our aims and plans. Suffice it to say that we will continue to publish the kind of a paper that will aid in promoting the welfare of our home and civic life. We hope to continue the confidence and good will of our people here at home. We will strive hard to merit it.

What finer present could you make your family, than a year's subscription to these splendid publications, thus insuring for Father, Mother, and the Boys and Girls, a full supply of instructive and entertaining reading for the long Winter evenings that are coming?

At this season of the year, all sorts of combination offers are made, most of which consist of cheap, unknown publications that possess very little value. Here we offer you FOUR publications, each of which is well known to you as being absolutely reliable. We feel extremely enthusiastic over this offer and have no hesitancy in urging our readers to subscribe. It is a genuine bargain. Take advantage of it NOW, as it may be withdrawn at any time.

THIS IS THE OFFER YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO MISS. SIT DOWN NOW AND SEND YOUR ORDER TO.

A HOME-MADE PAPER.

THURSDAY, January 29, 1914.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Frank Monntz, of Abilene, Texas, is visiting relatives in Powell and Estill counties.

Judge Mann will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning and at night.

Chas. Scott, the affable General Passenger Agent of the L. & E., was in the city Monday.

W. J. Mountz, Jr., and little daughter, Ruth, of Harriman, Tenn., were guests of relatives in the city over Sunday.

Shelt Larison Jr., of Indianaapolis, Ind., arrived here Tuesday morning on his way to see his mother, Mrs. Dave Larison, near Kimbrell.

That portion of Irvine burned last week will be rebuilt with substantial brick structures. The fire started by the explosion of a gasoline heater in a barber shop.

A Mr. Powell was here from Beattyville Tuesday looking after the purchase of a good farm. We have not learned as to whether he found a place to suit him or not.

Mr. Morgan Lyle, of Stanton, and Mr. Shmifessel, of Clay City, were in Irvine last Saturday, and were entertained at the home of their old friend, Mr. S. M. Mappel.—Estill Tribune.

An Ideal Woman's Laxative.

Who wants to take salts, or castor oil, when there is nothing better than Dr. King's New Life Pills for all bowel troubles. They act gently and naturally on the stomach and liver, stimulate and regulate your bowels and tone up the entire system. Price, 25c. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

The beautiful weather continues, it appearing more like spring than winter.

Monday is County court day at Stanton when it will undoubtedly be a very busy day. The Sheriff's tax sale will take place on this day as will two Commissioner's sale of land.

Mr. Coleman, one of the L. & E bridge carpenters located here for some months, moved his family to Louisville this week, while he himself will take employment at Irvine.

We have a real nice correspondence this week from Gray's Branch. We hope to hear from Gray's Branch weekly and to also gain a number of subscribers from that portion of the county.

Our roads are better than usual in the winter, owing to the small amount of rainfall. There has not been a tide of any importance this winter, and the Brodhead-Garrett saw mill has not yet got to start up.

Frank B. Russell, president of the Clay City National Bank, and a native son of this city, who has made his mark in the financial world, returned to his home in Louisville Monday afternoon after attending a meeting of the board of directors of the bank in the forenoon.

Worms Cause of Your Child's Pains.

A foul, disagreeable breath, dark circles around the eyes, at times feverish, with great thirst, cheeks flushed and then pale, abdomen swollen with sharp cramping pains are all indications of worms. Don't let your child suffer—Kickapoo Worm Killer will give sure relief. It kills the worms—while its laxative effect add greatly to the health of your child by removing the dangerous and disagreeable effect of worms and parasites from the system. Kickapoo Worm Killer as a health producer should be in every household. Perfectly safe. Buy a box to-day. Price 25c. All Druggists or by mail. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

A Splendid Report.

Do not fail to read the splendid bank statement of the Clay City National in this issue of the Times. From the amount of the deposits, which is nearly $100,000 we must conclude two things, that our people have some money left yet and that they have found a safe and sound place to keep it.

For Frost Bites and Chapped Skin.

For frost bitten ears, fingers and toes; chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, there is nothing to equal Bucklen's Arnica Sale. Stops the pain at once and heals quickly. In every home there should be a box handy all the time. Best remedy for all skin diseases, itching eczema, tetter, piles, etc. 25c. All druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Trouble in Clusters.

Just after finishing the sad task of bringing his son here to the Eastern Kentucky Hospital for the Insane, former Sheriff Thomas B. Ware, of Powell county, who lives near Clay City, received a message that his son-in-law, D. A. Hughes, county Assessor of Clark county, had died at Hedges, in the vicinity of Winchester, Wednesday night. Mr. Ware left for his home this morning.—Lexington Leader.

Wonderful Cough Remedy.

Dr. King's New Discovery is known everywhere as the remedy which will surely stop a cough or cold. D. P. Lawson, of Eidson, Tenn. writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the most wonderful cough, cold and throat and lung medicine I ever sold in my store. It can't be beat. It sells without any trouble at all. It needs no guarantee." It is true, because Dr. King's New Discovery will relieve the most obstinate of coughs and colds. Lung troubles quickly helped by its use. You should keep a bottle in the house at all times for all the members of the family. 50c and $1.00. All Druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Do you realize, Mr. Farmer, what it is worth to you to know each morning the market value of your live stock and other farm products? Don't you realize the ignorance of market conditions for one day only might mean many dollars to you? Is not your national pride strong enough to force the desire to know daily the phases of the trouble between the United States and Mexico? Only a few days ago Admiral Fletcher of the United States Navy threatened to turn the guns of his battleship on the Mexican city of Tampico unless the fighting then going on between the rebels and Federals in the streets of that city, and endangering the lives of our citizens and other foreigners, ceased. This would have meant war, and any act on any day may bring this result.

The Lexington Herald, the leading daily of Central Kentucky, is now offering a mail rate of $5.00, when paid in advance, for the daily and Sunday issue for one year. Why not subscribe now and see that you are kept posted on what is doing in all the world, including your own neighborhood news.

Farm Drain Tile

Make Your Wet Land Productive.

By the use of drain tile you can turn that low, wet, useless, swampy field into the most productive spot on your farm. Good tile, properly placed, not only carries off surplus water, it admits air to the soil and makes it easy to work. It improves any soil. The increase in the value of the land is many times the cost of the tile. The first year's crop from tiled land pays for it. Any body can do the work successfully. It Always Helps says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.
